

Tabet Law Firm comprises a team of lawyers with extensive expertise. Headquartered in Beirut, Lebanon, the Firm serves and assists its clients globally, in Lebanon and internationally, with the help of its worldwide associates, specifically in the MENA region, in France as well as in Canada, in all aspects of their projects and complex litigation. From commercial and contracts disputes, to real estate matters to inheritance issues and family law, we aim to help companies and individuals solve their most complex legal issues. We always strive to exceed the expectations of our clients and provide them with the highest quality advice and legal insight.

Tabet Law Firm has acquired over the years, substantial experience in a wide range of services.

We pride ourselves on our services in the following fields:

- GENERAL LITIGATION

Tabet Law Firm has acquired recognized knowhow and expertise in dispute resolution, one of our core practice areas, relating to complex matters as well as assisting clients both at pre-litigation and post-litigation stages.

Our litigation skills also include advising clients on suitable strategies, depending on the type of dispute and interests at stake.

We have significant expertise in specific areas such as calling in technical and complex litigation that require, amongst others, Court-appointed expert proceedings. We assist clients in all types of litigation, including construction and industrial matters in addition to general commercial disputes, as well as for shareholders' disputes. We also assist our clients with civil and criminal liability matters.
